Prayer

Pastor Doug

Gracious God, I am blessed and thankful for so many things you have provided me in my life. Even when I was not aware of your presence, you provided and blessed me. I see those times now, as I reflect back.

Lord Jesus, I thank you for the good and the bad times in my life. In the bad you were to make them better, in the good, you made them even better. While I wanted many things, you provided what I needed.

Thank you for my sister, my mother and father, who you saw fit to make us a family. Thank you for those you put in my life as teachers, who helped form and mold me to be who I am. It is from Your Spirit that they have helped me to be who You have called me to be.

Although, God, I did not know you were preparing me for a life of ministry, through the occupations I took up, you used those occupations to help me to minister to a large cross section of people. I am so fortunate for those experiences and keep looking to the future for what you have in mind for me.

God, I resisted going to seminary. I resisted Your call. I resisted seeing You present. I resisted the idea of being a pastor. I resist but you were and are relentless in Your love. You never give up.

My God, my Lord and Savior, I continue to resist what you want me to do. I resist Your call and I fail to see where you are active in my life. I know that you are active in my congregation, even when at times it seems like you are not. I believe we, as a congregation, resist your call for us. We resist seeing you active. I know Lord that when I resist, I resist because I often want things my way, rather than the way of Your Son, in the Gospel. You are persistent. You are loving. You are not forceful towards us.

Lord, you call us to love one another as You first loved us. Help me to see the blessings you shower upon me. Open my eyes to the blessings you gave, give and will give to me and my family. Open the eyes of our congregation to the blessings you have showered upon us, and will shower upon us.

Although no prayers of blessings were sent in to be included in our newsletter, I truly believe we are blessed. Keep being relentless. Keep pursuing us, so that we can see you more clearly. Come Holy Spirit, so that we can Love you more dearly. Father, open our eyes to the Lord, so that we can see the blessings, live in the blessings and so that we can be a blessing to others, with a free-willed heart responding to you, my God.

I lift these prayers up to You, O God. For the sake of the gospel, hear me, hear us, O God.

Amen

Food Pantry

Our food pantry is running low on funds! Every month, between 50 and 90 food boxes are given out of the office. We are able to buy food at a drastically reduced price from the Food Bank of Siouxland. If you can donate any money towards the pantry, please do so! Just write "pantry" on either your check or your envelope. We will also accept donations of nonperishable food items.

With Deepest Sympathy

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the following families. Please keep them in your prayers.

Bob and Nellie May Anderson, on the death of their son, David Anderson, on Friday, March 15. Services were held Wednesday, March 20 at Sandhills Community Bible Church in Mullen NE.

Thank You

First Lutheran Church Food Pantry-Thank you to Bobier Studio, Circle I and Joyce Williams for their donations of food. Sixty-five boxes were handed out in February.

Knudsen Family-We would like to express our sincere appreciation for all your prayers, visits, words of condolences, thoughtfulness and support during this trying time for us. A special thank you to Pastor for all the time spent with Paul and for the service. To the ladies of the church who helped with the luncheon, nothing would have made Paul happier than having everyone together. Your genuine love has helped us at the time we need it the most and we are truly thankful to be part of such a loving church family. Paul so loved his church. Through the memories he gave us, he will live on forever in our hearts. You all have been a blessing to each of us.

Acolytes Needed

We are in need of acolytes on Easter Sunday, April 21. If your child is available to help, please contact the church office.

Lenten Meals

We are in need of people to help provide the Lenten lunches and Lenten suppers. Lunch follows the 12:00 p.m. service, and a supper precedes the 7:00 p.m. service at 6:00 p.m. There are sign-up sheets in the entryway.

Office Closed

The office will be closed Monday, April 22 in observance of Easter.

Sound Cabinet

To support our internal and external ministries, a new sound board was purchased and paid for by some generous donations and a grant from our Synod. John Koskovich has been approached to modify the existing cabinet, which he built, to accommodate the needed board. We have been advised that the cost of the modification is $600-$1,000. The sound board that was chosen cannot be a smaller one, if we are to adequately accommodate the ongoing ministries appropriately. If you would like to help fund the modification, which is to be installed before Easter, please consider a donation towards the cabinet work. This can be donated to the Live Stream or Music Ministries funds. Thank you in advance for your consideration of supporting our ministries.

Giving Statements

If we have your email address on file, we will email your giving statement to you. All others will be printed and available at the Welcome Center after April 3. Please pick up your giving statement to help us further save on postage costs.

Nebraska Floods

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. ²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. ³For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

-Isaiah 43:1-2

Dear Friends in Christ:

The past week has seen record-breaking levels of devastation across the state, and even now many communities and hundreds of individuals still don't know what damage awaits them when flood waters drop and snow drifts are cleared away.

In compassion and generosity, congregations and individuals have begun to reach out to ask, "How can I help?" On behalf of the Nebraska Synod and our ELCA Lutheran Disaster Response partners and others, I'm writing to respond to that question.

It will take several days to know the extent of the damage, and to determine how most effectively to respond to the needs of those who've been impacted. Until then, there are three things that each of us can do:

- Pray for God's presence, protection and healing power for victims, first responders, caregivers and relief workers; for fair weather and favorable circumstances for recovery; for patience and endurance in the aftermath; and for sustained awareness and commitment to long-term recovery.
- Contribute to the Nebraska Synod Disaster Fund or Lutheran Disaster Response or a similar relief effort. Monetary Contributions are the most flexible resource to meet immediate and long-term needs, and 100% of your contribution goes to aid those in need.
- Plan now to set aside time in a month or later to volunteer for the continuing recovery effort that will stretch for months and in some cases, years.

The Nebraska Synod continues to stay in touch with congregations in affected communities around the state and will provide updates via e-news and social media. As relief efforts are coordinated, needs assessed and opportunities for specific assistance become clear, the Synod will make them known and work to coordinate resources and needs.

To date, we are aware of only one congregation experiencing severe damage: Our Savior's in Dannebrog has had its building condemned. Other congregations and leaders have reported water in church and parsonage basements, but no major damage. Of course hundreds of individual members of synod congregations have experienced damage ranging from minor to near-total loss. We will continue to provide updates.

For the time being, please help us help victims by choosing to Pray, Contribute and Plan in the near term, and by staying tuned to respond to needs as they become clear. Though our human impulse is to "do something now," effective and truly helpful disaster response is patiently geared to the identified needs of victims. Once this recovery begins, it will truly be a long-haul effort. Use <https://nebraskasynod.org/learn/nebraska-floods.html> to see what response actions and efforts are underway.

With deep gratitude for your concern for those affected, and with prayers for all whose lives have been disrupted by these disasters,

Brian Maas

Lenten Prayer Vigil

Living Last Supper

Leonard, the versatile genius of the Renaissance, was born in Vinci, Italy, in 1452. As Vinci's most famous personality, he is known universally as Leonardo (of) da Vinci.

Even though he excelled as a sculptor, a scientist, an inventor, and engineer, he is remembered, even after the passing of many centuries, primarily because of two famous paintings: the Mona Lisa, which hangs in the Louvre in Paris, and The Last Supper.

The focus of this painting was what he considered the most dramatic moment of The Last Supper, namely, that moment just after the Lord had said, "ONE OF YOU WILL BETRAY ME." After Jesus spoke these words, the twelve apostles became men of different moods. Actually, the only composed person was Jesus himself. In the excitement, Judas overturned the container of salt, while Peter drew his knife. Some of the apostles stared in utter amazement, while others looked at each other in stark disbelief!

In this living dramatization of Leonardo's "The Last Supper", the twelve apostles speak their minds to themselves, to each other, to the Lord, and to you! Who among us will betray the Lord?

Join us for The Living Last Supper on Wednesday, April 17 at 7:00 p.m.

Maundy Thursday/Good Friday

On Maundy Thursday, April 18, and Good Friday, April 19, we will be having services at 7:00 p.m.

May 10 at the Orpheum Theater. The evening begins with a social hour at 5:00 p.m. and concludes with a performance at 6:00 p.m. Free will donations will be accepted to support the Sanford Community Center Programs. The concert will feature hit musical songs from: Rent, Dear Evan Hansen, The Greatest Showman, Once, Wicked, Be More Chill, A Star is Born and many more!

First Communion Classes

Anyone in 5th grade or older that has not had a first communion class is invited to participate in this class. Do you want to learn more about the Eucharist? Come to this class and participate. The classes will be held on Sundays following the second worship service. Classes start April 28. We will meet for five weeks. We will also meet from 10:30-11:30 on Saturday, May 4 at the Sioux City Art Center, where we will be working on plates and chalices that will be used during your First Communion. First communion will take place Sunday, June 9.

Third Grade Bible Distribution

On April 28, the 3rd graders will be presented with their own Bible. We do this because we, along with their parents, made a promise at their baptism to place God's Word in their hands.
